The Recipient shall have a right to permit a usage of the Material outside its/his laboratories, only receiving prior written consent from the Provider. No one is permitted to take or send this Material to any other location, unless prior written permission is obtain from the Provider.

2. The Recipient acknowledges that the Material is or may be the subject of petty patent, patent, petty patent application or patent application. Except as provided in the agreement, no express or implied license or other right is granted to the Recipient under any patent or petty patent, petty patent application or patent application, trade secrets or other intellectual property rights and other proprietary rights of the Provider, including any altered forms of the Material made by the Provider for Commercial Purpose.

   If the Recipient desires to use the Material for Commercial Purpose, the Recipient shall inform the Provider in writing in advance and obtain a license from the Provider or the owner or the proprietior of the Material (if any) before the beginning of the commercial use.

3. The Recipient may use the Material in compliance with relevant national and international laws and regulations. Any Material delivered pursuant to this agreement is understood to be experimental in nature and may have hazardous properties and that its use may require acquisition of rights from third parties. The PROVIDER MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS AND EXTENDS NO WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED. THERE ARE NO EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF THE MATERIAL, ITS SOURCE, MERCHANTABILITY, TRANSFER OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR THAT THE USE OF THE MATERIAL WILL NOT INFRINGE ANY PATENT, COPYRIGHT, TRADEMARK, OR OTHER PROPRIETARY RIGHTS.

   Except to the extent prohibited by law, the Recipient assumes all liability for damages which may arise from its use, storage, disposal or transfer of the Material. The Provider will not be liable to the Recipient for any loss, claim or demand made by the Recipient, or made against the Recipient by any other party.

4. Use of the Material may be subject to specific restrictions which are mentioned in the catalog or other documents provided to the Recipient and are hereby acknowledged by the Recipient.

5. If the Recipient desires to file patent/petty patent application(s) claiming inventions made by the Recipient through the use of the Material, the Recipient shall receive prior written consent from the Provider or the owner or the proprietor of the Material before filing such application(s). The parties shall agree in writing both on the management thereof, and the sharing of any benefit arising therefrom.

6. "Confidential Information" means any information, including information of a third party, which is disclosed by the Provider to the Recipient and the Provider desires the Recipient to keep as confidential information and/or trade secret of the Provider. Such information relating to the Material includes but not be limited to all data, specifications, materials, technical information, processes, document and other information relating to the Material.

   The Recipient shall keep all disclosed Confidential Information strictly confidential, not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party and shall use appropriate measures to secure the Confidential Information received from the Provider. The exception is that the Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information:

   6.1. after receiving the prior written consent from the Provider;

   6.2. to the extent permitted by applicable law; or

   6.3. to its employee(s), who have a direct "need to know" and are aware of and subject to a written agreement obliging them to maintain confidentiality of such Confidential Information at the same degree of care under the Agreement.

7. The Recipient may publish information which is not Confidential Information of the Provider, provided that the Recipient acknowledges the Provider and other sources which are mentioned in the catalog or other documents provided to the Recipient as the source of the Material and data in all publications based on or relating to the Material, including any replica, derivatives, and any research thereof.

8. If the Recipient breaches any terms of the agreement, the Provider shall have the right to promptly terminate the agreement and claim for all damages from the Recipient.

9. The validity, interpretation, enforceability, and performance of the agreement and all questions relating hereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of Thailand without regard to the principles of conflict of laws, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Kingdom of Thailand.

As a government agency, NSTDA reserves the right to prevent the other party from publicly referring to NSTDA as its contractual party or to disclose any content of the memorandum of understanding or of the contract. Nonetheless, NSTDA, at its discretion, may issue a certification letter that a person or an organization has a legal relationship with NSTDA.
10. Miscellaneous

10.1. The agreement may be amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified only by means of an amendment signed by the authorized person and affixed the official seal (if any) of the Provider and the Recipient.

10.2. In case of amalgamation, merger, acquisition or other act related to transferring of share which results in change of the power to conduct the business of the Recipient, the Recipient shall promptly notify the Provider in writing.

10.3. At the later stage, in case that any provision of the agreement is held to be invalid or prohibited under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity or prohibition without affecting the validity of the remainder of such provision and the remaining provisions of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

10.4. A waiver of any rights or remedies available to the Provider shall not be valid and effective unless expressed in writing and executed by the duly authorized representative(s) of the Provider. Such waiver by the Provider shall not be construed as a waiver in respect of any other breach, antecedent or future.

10.5. The Provider may terminate this Agreement if performance becomes difficult due to force majeure, including, but not limited to, natural disaster: fire, storm, flood, earthquake or act of God; war (declared or not), rebellion, revolution, riots, prohibitive governmental regulations or any cause beyond the reasonable control of the Provider or either of them renders the performance of this Agreement impossible; provided, however, that the Provider shall give the Recipient immediate notice of the event.
